

2024 Interprovincial Pro Football Conference

League information. The IPFC originally consisted of six teams: Halifax, London, Quebec, Saskatoon, Vancouver, and Ottawa. In 2014, Ottawa moved to Windsor and Alberta was added to the league. At that time, the league's seven teams were not broken down into divisions. In 2015, the league introduced its eighth team, Niagara. Niagara was designated as a regional team playing half of their home games in Buffalo, NY and the others in St. Catherines, Ontario. With eight teams, the league broke down into two divisions, Eastern and Western. Despite hesitancy, in 2023, the league expanded to ten teams with the addition of Pacific and Manitoba. Both Pacific and Manitoba were placed in the Western Division and Windsor moved to the East.

Season notes/changes made.

- Full names are provided for almost every player.
- Outside Running Grades for Wide Receivers and Slotbacks are indicated in parenthesis located right of their name.
- Running and Kicking Grades are listed as 5A instead of AAAAA, 4A instead of AAAAA, 3A instead of AAA, and 2A instead of AA.
- The size of rosters have been reduced but should have ample players for the season.
- If additional players are needed, they are located on the free agent list.
- The Association of Canadian Colleges & Universities (ACCU) companion set is provided. This is the fictional college set associated with the IPFC and where most drafted/undrafted players come from.

2024 Interprovincial Pro Football Conference

Eastern Division

Halifax. With an above average offence and defence, Halifax will contend for the East. Offence. Running back Eric Stewart vacated Niagara's losing ways for an opportunity to reach the Cartier Bowl. Stewart replaces Blake Thornton who remains as a back-up. Also new in the backfield will be rookie Fullback Emil Walton (New Westminster) who is a threat on the ground and through the air. Looking for championship experience, Halifax dealt Cash Reeves to London for 12-year veteran Slotback Kirk McCord. At 35-years old and a future Hall-of-Famer, Chase Patterson is still better than most receivers and will provide Carson Herbert with a clutch target. Defence. Retired Defensive End Darrell Campbell has been replaced by rookie William King (St. John's). King will play across the line from Leslie Gesner and will punish opposing quarterbacks. Entering into his 18th and final season, Defensive halfback Maurice Pearson ends his Hall-of-Famer career but will mostly watch from the sidelines as rookie Jack Klassen (Thunder Bay) replaces him in the starting line-up. Pearson is not only veteran being demoted; Edward Roy replaces Paul Lundy on the interior of the defensive line. With some extra off-season efforts and four years worth of experience, Outside Linebacker Julian Coleman has established himself as an elite defender in the IPFC. Special Teams. To keep Paul Hutchinson healthy and in the starting line-up, Curtis Bates was signed to return kick-offs. Jack Klassen will field the punts. Place Kicker/Punter Spencer Hoover was released and rookie Lyle Armstrong (Thunder Bay) was signed.

OFF/DEF: [NC]/[NC]. Projected: 7-3

London. To win another Cartier Bowl, London will have to depend on its passing offense to lead the way. Offence. After his rookie season, Jordan Keen is looking to earn another championship ring. Keen will have plenty support from Colton Marsh, Chase Mullen, and Richie Rhinehart. After sitting the bench in 2023, Alvin Edwards replaces Kelly Palmer at wide receiver. In the off-season, London sent veteran Kirk McCord to Halifax for Slotback Cash Reeves. With the addition of rookie Tackle Dawson Huard to the offensive line, Lyle Reeves makes the shift from Left Tackle to Right Guard. London released 13-year veteran Quarterback Sean Miller. To replace him, they signed Phillip Bradley, a 2022 Bennett College graduate who lingered as a free agent in 2023. Defence. Jon Ikeda, the heart and soul of London's defence, is back for his 13th season. Despite finally showing signs of slowing down, Ikeda is still London's best defensive player. London's defence looks almost identical to the previous season except the backfield which has three rookies: Cornerback Johnny Morton (St. Catherine's), Defensive Halfback James Morris (William J. Gage), and Safety Sam King (Mississauga). Special Teams. Kelly Palmer might have dropped in the receiver depth chart, but he remains as London's primary kick returner. Marlon Peterson is back as their explosive punt returner. Sheldon Butler increased his leg strength and should have another good season.

OFF/DEF: [-1]/[+1]. Projected: 7-3

Niagara. If championships were won on strong run offenses and defenses, then Niagara would win it all. Offence. Jeff Fountain decided to return for another season but will play second fiddle to Jeremy Lauzon, a modern quarterback who can throw and run. Rookie Carl Bridges (Thunder Bay) replaces Running back Eric Stewart who departed for Halifax. Analyst predict Bridges will be an upgrade. With Robert Malone signing with Quebec, Nathan Wagner looks to fill his shoes as Lauzon's favorite target. However, Wagner will have to share the spotlight with 12-year veteran C.J. Dupre. Rumor has it Fullback Milt Smyke will retire at the end of the season. Defence. As Defensive End Gerard Belanger departed for Vancouver after his rookie season, Elden Lowman returns to his original position on the defensive line. To fill Lowman's void at linebacker, Niagara signed Brian Thompson. The biggest change to Niagara's defence will be in the backfield. Rookie Safety Pierre Peters (Thunder Bay) will play defensive halfback, Wes Gagnon will mirror Peters across the field, and Landon Byrne will shift from Defensive halfback to Cornerback. Special Teams. Jason Whitney will take a majority of kick and punt returns. Newly acquired Erik Kempf will help and could take over if needed. At 37-years old, Kicker/Punter Martin Contreras shows no signs of slowing down.

OFF/DEF: [NC]/[-1]. Projected: 2-8

Quebec. With an average offence and the best defence in the East, Quebec will have the opportunity to sit on top of their Division. Offence. To improve their offence, Quebec used their first round draft pick on John Corbett (Mississauga). Despite playing for a losing team in the Association of Canadian Colleges & Universities, Corbett was an elite running back on the ground and through the air. With the free agent signing of Robert Malone, Diego Garcia drops down the wide receiver depth chart and Brian Bender drops to the number two target for Jeremy Lefevre. Slotback Nick Tremblay (Ursulines) replaces 12-year veteran Rico Montanez in the starting line-up. Montanez remains with the team as back-up and mentor. In the middle of the offensive line, 37-year old and future Hall-of-Famer Taylor Yarbrough will take a backseat to Pierre Leblanc. Defence. The nucleus of Quebec's defense are Linebackers Jovan Ridgely, Jean-Francois Giguere, and Ryan Blake. All three are talented and have remained loyal to the team. Only a few changes happened to the defence since last season. With the retirement of Defensive End Howard Hopkins and the selection of rookie Defensive Tackle Thomas Toussaint (Ursulines), Zander Wallace moves back to the defensive edge in what will likely be his last season. Besides Toussaint, rookie Cornerback Hans Martel (Sainte-Marie) enters the starting line-up to replace 11-year veteran Eddie Forbes who remains with the team. Special Teams. Jordy Miano suffered an off-season injury to his kicking foot which will negatively impact his production. Having both with speed and vision, Jermaine Goodman and Sam Allen make up the best returner duo in the IPFC.

OFF/DEF: [-1]/[+1]. Projected: 7-3

Windsor. The future looks bright but the present looks grim. Offence. Unfortunately, Windsor's starting offensive line-up looks awfully similar to last year's squad. The exceptions are rookie Wide Receiver Marcus Davis (Naismith) who replaces the retired Remi McKinney and free agent Wide Receiver Bryan Johnson who replaces Roger Pilon. Looking to the future, Windsor drafted Adam Edwards (Ste. Anne's Point) who will replace Mark McClellan in future seasons but will need time to develop. To provide the team with youth, they signed undrafted rookies Nelson Morris (Naismith) and Caston Pickett (Cabot & Cartier). Defence. The defensive line looks promising with the addition of rookie Jesse Williams (Thunder Bay) and Nicholas Baker and William Ouellet showing improvement for their second season. Along with Baker and Ouellet, Linebacker Jaylen Ewart will have a solid sophomore year. In the backfield, rookie Lamar Graham replaces Ryan Higgins who now lingers as a quality free agent. Special Teams. Leland Kane added kicking strength which could negatively impact his accuracy. Upon releasing Luis Tidwell, Windsor signed undrafted rookie Randy Whitehead to return kickoffs and punts.

OFF/DEF: [+1]/[-2]. Projected: 2-8

2024 Interprovincial Pro Football Conference

Western Division

Alberta. Ranked the top team in the IPFC, Alberta will make a run at the Cartier Bowl. Offence. Entering his 6th season, Nate Willington is the top ranked quarterback in the IPFC. Anchored by Robert Bagshaw and with the addition of rookie Brett Downing, Willington has one of the best offensive lines protecting him. After 14 solid seasons, Wide Receiver Leodis Perry called it quits; rookie Joe Manning (St. Albert) was drafted in the 1st round as his replacement. Rookie Gabe Logan (Saskatoon) beat out Carl Walser for a starting Slotback position. In his 10th season, Kevin Blanchard is no longer the league's most skilled two-way Running back but he's still destined for the Hall of Fame. Defence. With rookie Defensive halfback Ricky Blais entering the starting line-up, Carols Garcia shifts to Cornerback and Brendan Briggs is bumped to the sidelines. Erwan Michaud replaces Cody Erickson at Safety; Erickson will be used as a back-up linebacker. Alberta's front defensive line and linebackers look identical as last season. Special Teams. Lachlan Staples will have another strong season. Carlos Garcia and Reese Matthews will share kick-off and punt returns.

OFF/DEF: [-2]/[-2]. Projected: 9-1

Manitoba. With a strong ground attack and an mediocre defence, Manitoba has no place to go but up after their inaugural season. Offence. With the selection of Fullback Jon Dueck (Rideau) in the draft, Adrian Pringle moves from Fullback to Running back and replaces Jason Phillips in the starting line-up. Pringle and Dueck will be a dynamic duo for defenders to stop. Tackle Andre Gresser was released and replaced by 24-year old Curtis Butler. Slotback Josh Seitzer packed his suitcase again and signed with Vancouver; rookie Salem Daigle (Rideau) is his replacement. To provide Kyle Lambert with quality passing targets, Wide Receivers and Peel University teammates Lincoln Wilson and Hudson Wright were drafted. Wilson replaces Heath Parrish who signed with London. Although Wright will not be part of the starting twelve, he is expected to play an important role off the sidelines. Defence. Manitoba spent no time in the off-season making adjustments to last season's defensive starting line-up; it is a mirror image of 2023. Outside linebacker Keegan Whitaker has hit his prime and was named the Defensive Captain. Special Teams. As in 2023, Scotty Klime will return kick-offs and punts. Ricky Cortez keeps his job as the Place Kicker/Punter.

OFF/DEF: [+2]/[+1]. Projected: 3-7

Pacific. Below average across the board, Pacific's management are in for another harsh season. Offence. Injury prone J'Marcus Urban spent the off-season focusing on strength training, flexibility, and patience in the pocket. The multi-IPFC MVP will make adjustment to how he plays the game and should have a solid season. Quarterback Dwayne Mitchell was released and Nathan Gilbert (Bennett) was drafted to back-up Urban. After 15 seasons, Wide Receiver Mel Matthews retired. To replace Matthews and look for the future, Mark McLeod (Bennett) was selected as the 1st overall pick in the draft. With Slotback Erik Kempf signing with Niagara and limited options to replace him, Pacific signed undrafted rookie Gavin Point (Francis Drake). Defence. Cornerback Kyle Roderick calls it quits after 9-years. He will be replaced by rookie Michael Morrow (Bennett). Stewart Stevens jumped to the top of the Defensive End depth chart which relocated Bryan Valentine to the sidelines. Valentine announced he will retire at the end of 2024. Outside linebacker Carl Kowalski departed for Manitoba; Nate Tillsley (Bennett) was drafted to replace him. Linebackers Greg Minton and Joshua Brown have shown improvement in their run stopping abilities.

Special Teams. Nick Lane remains as Pacific's Place Kicker/Punter. Scotty Savage will take the reins from Kyle Roderick as the primary kick-off and punt returner.

OFF/DEF: [NC]/[-2]. Projected: 1-9

Saskatoon. Points-for and points-against will be abundant. Offence. Nothing has changed to the team's offensive starting line-up. However, player improvement is ample. With Mathias Small, Jerry Brockhouse, Kenyon McKean, Carlton Buck, and led by Quarterback Colson Herbert, the offence will punish opponents through the air and on the ground. As Elliott Chaase retired after 13 season, Saskatoon signed 13-year veteran Sean Miller. Miller still has fuel in the tank and brings veteran leadership to the locker-room. Defence. Defensive halfback Toby Justice looks aged and gave up his starting position to rookie Julian Toews (Red River). Justice chose not to retire and remains as a back-up. Rookie Vernon Brooks (Rideau) replaces Horace Pittman at Left Outside Linebacker. Defensive Captain Tyrone Good enters his 14th season and does not appear to have much left in his tank. Oscar Lindsay ended his career leaving a gap in the defensive line. As an upgrade and to fill this gap, Saskatoon drafted Max Ostell (St. Catherine's). Special Teams. Place Kicker/Punter Ray Blair may have tough 2024 campaign. Max Meyers remains at the return man.

OFF/DEF: [-2]/[NC]. Projected: 7-3

Vancouver. Strong in pass defence and fragile in the rest, 2024 will be a .500 season. Offence. Future Hall-of-Famer Kyle Laurence retired after 15 seasons and a few Cartier Bowl rings. Kohen Gale (St. Catherine's) was drafted in the 1st round to replace Laurence and veteran Slotback Josh Seitzer was signed as security. With Fullback Darryl Harrison retiring, Michael Craig moves up the depth chart and hopes for a breakout season. The offensive line will see two changes: Pierre Brodeur beat out rookie Ken Cormier (St. Catherine's) at Centre and Daniel Norris beat out Zach Fairbanks at Right Tackle. Joshua Gauthier was signed as Shotgun Johnson's back-up. Defence. After a strong rookie season in Niagara, Gerald Belanger was released due to undisclosed "management issues." Upon release, Belanger was quickly signed by Vancouver. With Belanger on the end of the defensive line, Cameron Copeland will move to the interior. The combination of Belanger and Defensive End Zeke Markle will be lethal for opposing quarterbacks. 13-year veteran Aatifa Semere is off to Niagara which places Winston Harvey back into the starting line-up. Rookie Jacques Theriault (Naismith) takes over Right Outside Linebacker for David Black. Special Teams. Luca Lyon will have a good punting year. Paul Sears is turning into one the league's best return men.

OFF/DEF: [NC]/[NC]. Projected: 5-5
