

Japanese Dominant Teams for History Maker Baseball

Recently, I helped pen an article in Sports Sim Magazine (put out by S.T. Patrick) featuring the top 32 “dominant” teams in Japanese history (with the caveat being that they were from a 6-team league era, and no franchise could have more than 1 team within 5 seasons of each other). Most of these teams I had previously rated for the tournaments/seasons I play in HMB, but I discovered not all of them were. This is meant to be a compendium of the teams in that article, as well as the 9 teams listed as “Honorable Mentions” – teams that were from franchises that aren’t represented in the 32, or were from an earlier time period than, or were teams that some might consider more famous than the teams on the list.

About the data used for the cards: most of the player data comes from the 2689web.com site, an (unofficial) overall site for Japanese Professional Baseball statistics, box scores and other information.

Lineups come from the RCAA blog at <https://ranzankeikoku.blog.fc2.com/>.

A recent addition to the stats I use come from npbstats.com. I currently use these for fielding, primarily.

The logos were (mostly) taken from the Nippon Professional Baseball Uniform Chronical, a set of 3 books that (as the name would imply) go through the history of uniform designs for Japanese professional teams, but also has a section on historical logos.

The teams in this set are (in order of their ranking in the article):

| | | | | | | | |
|----------------|----|---------------|----|-----------------|----|--------------------|--|
| 1955 Yomiuri | 1 | 2002 Seibu | 12 | 1984 Hankyu | 21 | Honorable Mentions | |
